RIGC Permission & Liability Waiver

In consideration of the acceptance of volunteering to attend free gardening classes with the Roosevelt Island Garden Club, Ltd. (“RIGC”) as a condition to the use of RIGC’s facilities, services, and equipment, the Student/Volunteer hereby agrees as follows:

- 1) The Student/Volunteer shall perform work in garden classes, enter the gardens, participate in RIGC activities, and use RIGC facilities, services and equipment at his/her own risk.
- 2) The Student/Volunteer and their parents shall indemnify and hold harmless the RIGC, including without limitation its Directors and Officers, permittor Roosevelt Island Operating Corp (“RIOC”), and the NYS Division of Housing and Community Renewal (“DHCR”) from any and all liabilities, suits, claims, penalties, demands, damages, including reasonable attorneys fees asserted against the RIGC, arising out of or resulting from the service, the use or intended use of the garden, its facilities, services and equipment, including without limitation:
 - a) loss or theft of or damage to personal property of the Student/Volunteer on, or about the premises of the RIGC.
 - b) judgments resulting from or arising out of negligence of the RIGC, personal injury to, or wrongful death of the Volunteer.
- 3) This Waiver is required by RIOC and no Student/Volunteer may help out with projects or enter the Garden without signing the Waiver.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read the Liability Waiver in its entirety and agree to its terms as set forth above. I also give this student (if under the age of 18) permission to participate.
